imc Learning Suite

Tailored Learning Management

360° Learning Management

Classroom or digital, social, on the job, blended, mobile or adaptive learning based on artificial intelligence – designed digital learning environments according to your personal needs.

Modular

The e-learning platform can be expanded at any time and is therefore infinitely scalable.

Hybrid Cloud

Our customers use the Learning Suite on-premise, SaaS-based or in a dedicated cloud.

User-Friendly

The intuitive usability makes it very easy to use, even for inexperienced learners.

imc Express

Express Content Creation

Immediately ready for use imc Express is so simple and intuitive that users do not need any training. A time-consuming installation is also not necessary. You can get started straight away.

Supported by Artificial Intelligence (AI)

imc Express uses AI to achieve maximum productivity. Images are automatically recognised and tagged, an AI algorithm finds the right template for your project and helps you translate all content including automatically generated subtitles in your videos.

Didactic support

imc Express provides suitable templates and gives users valuable tips on didactics for the entire creation process. In this way, imc Express helps users to create didactically meaningful content.

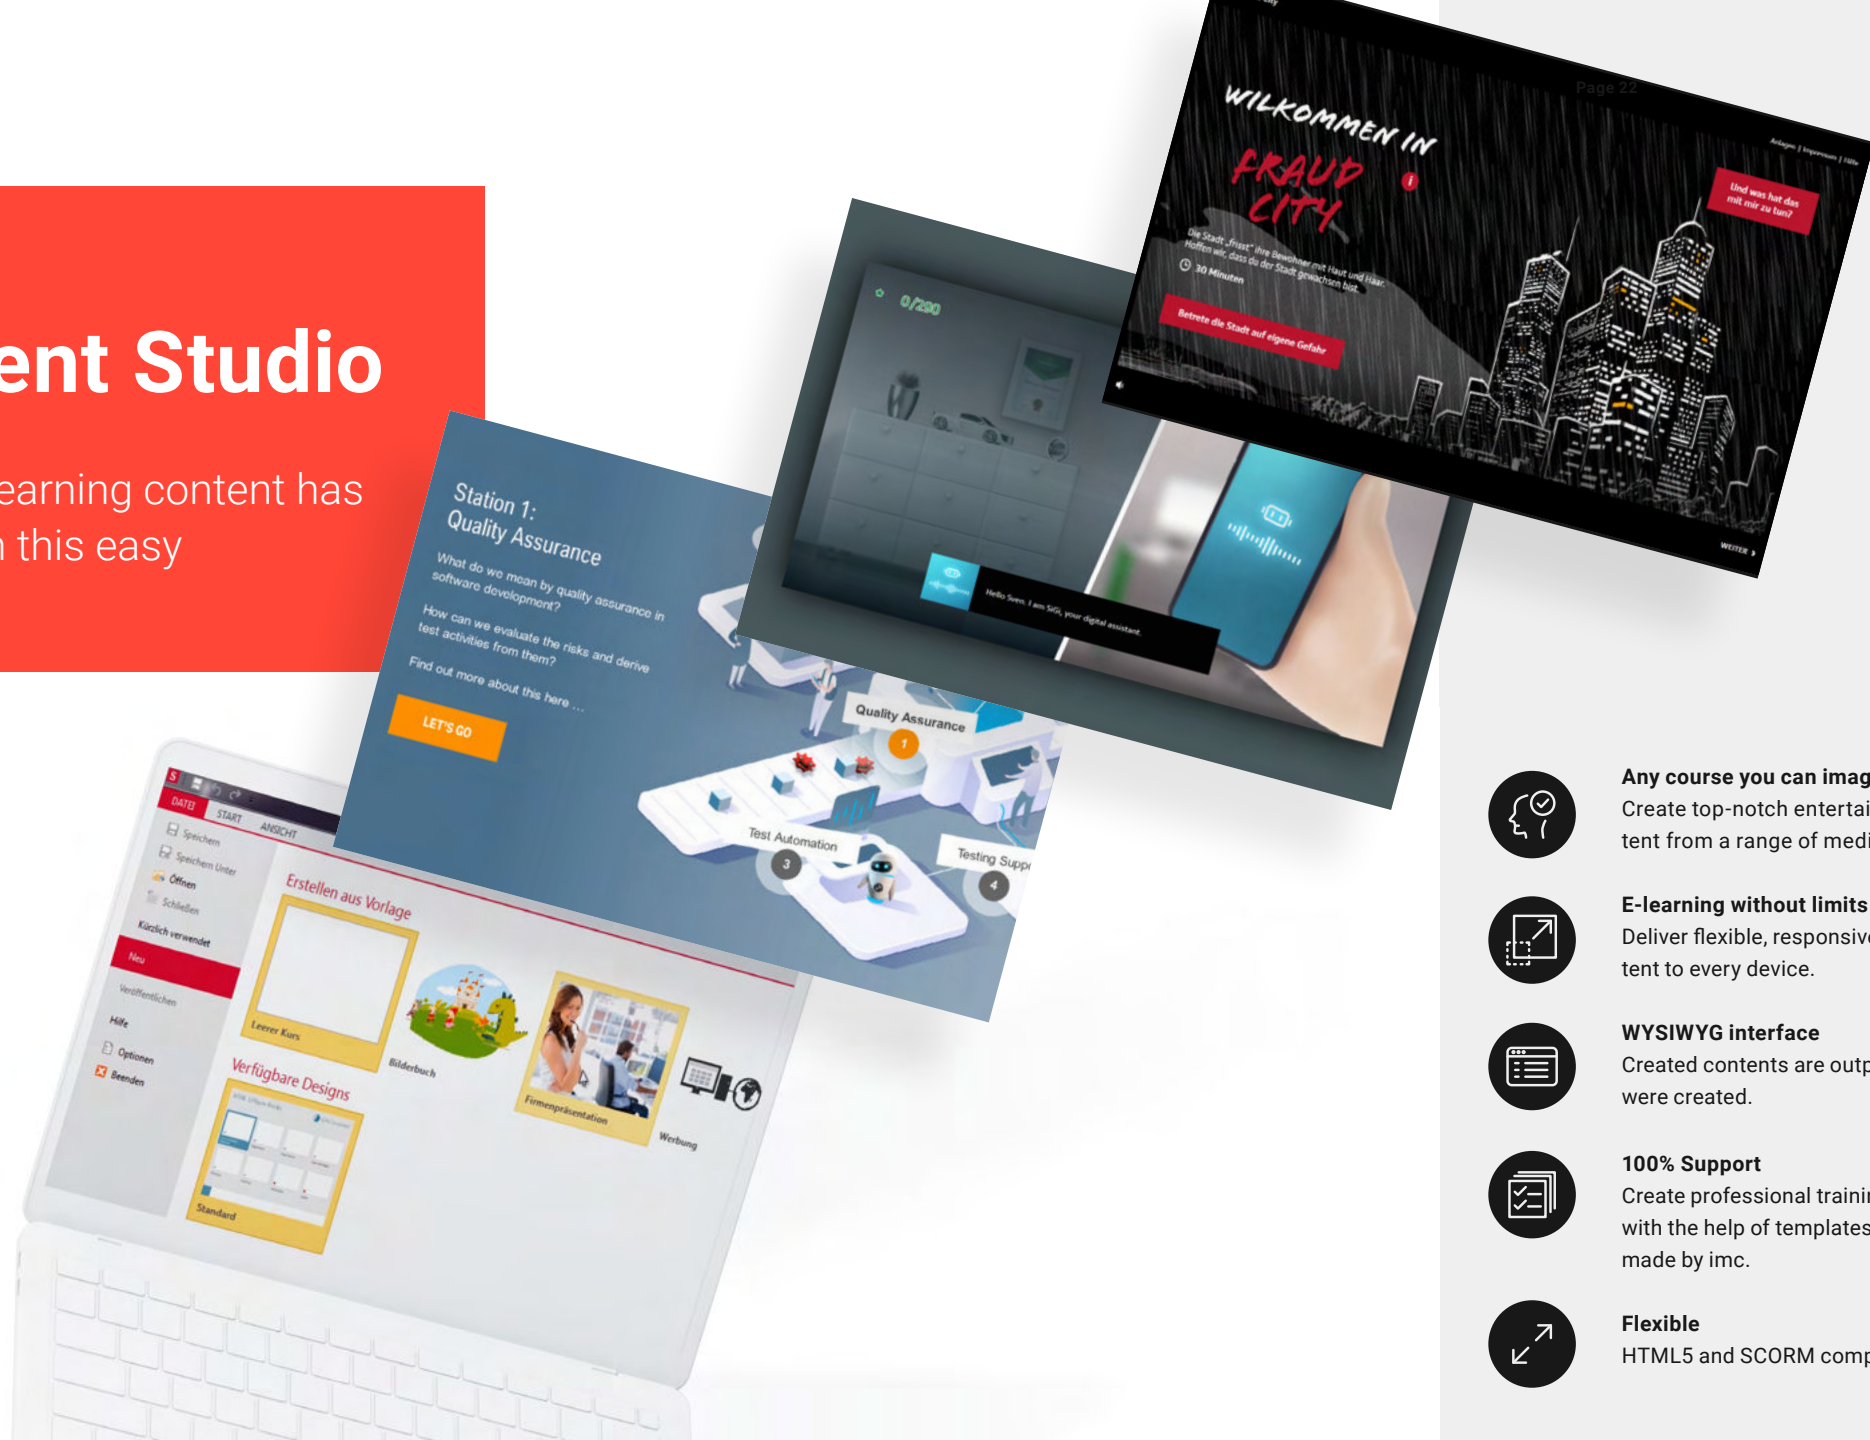

Great design easily accomplished

imc Express supports users with perfectly coordinated templates. The designs can be created in line with the respective corporate design so that the content fits 100% with your brand.

imc Content Studio

Premium learning content has never been this easy

Any course you can imagine
Create top-notch entertaining e-learning content from a range of media formats.

E-learning without limits
Deliver flexible, responsive and scalable content to every device.

WYSIWYG interface
Created contents are output exactly as they were created.

100% Support
Create professional training independently with the help of templates and style guides made by imc.

Content

We make training unique

Training should no longer feel like training, but should inspire! We combine conceptual strength with implementation power for the best learning experience – 100% individual and suitable for your company.

Tailor-made

From serious games and web based training to interactive videos or Performance Cards: we deliver the right format for individual learning objectives

Captivating

Competitions among colleagues, quizzes and training in video game format awaken the ambition of your learners

Awarded

Our content has won numerous awards – 7 international e-learning awards alone in 2019

Everywhere and at any time

At work or on the mobile phone between two appointments, there is a solution for every challenge.

Off-the-shelf

In addition to individual content, we have over 2,000 hours of standardized content in stock, such as compliance, soft skills, sales or IT.

Learning Strategy

From pure information transfer to action competence

With strategic consulting, we bring together learning technologies and learning content and steer them in the right direction for you. We develop your perfect roll-out with you. And not only technically. We make sure you achieve your business objectives.
